

IDENTIFYING AND RESPONDING TO FAMILY VIOLENCE IN

CAWLS
Women's Legal Service

Essential training for frontline workers in The Barkley, focusing on identifying and responding to domestic, family and sexual violence through practical, trauma-informed approaches.

The Barkley

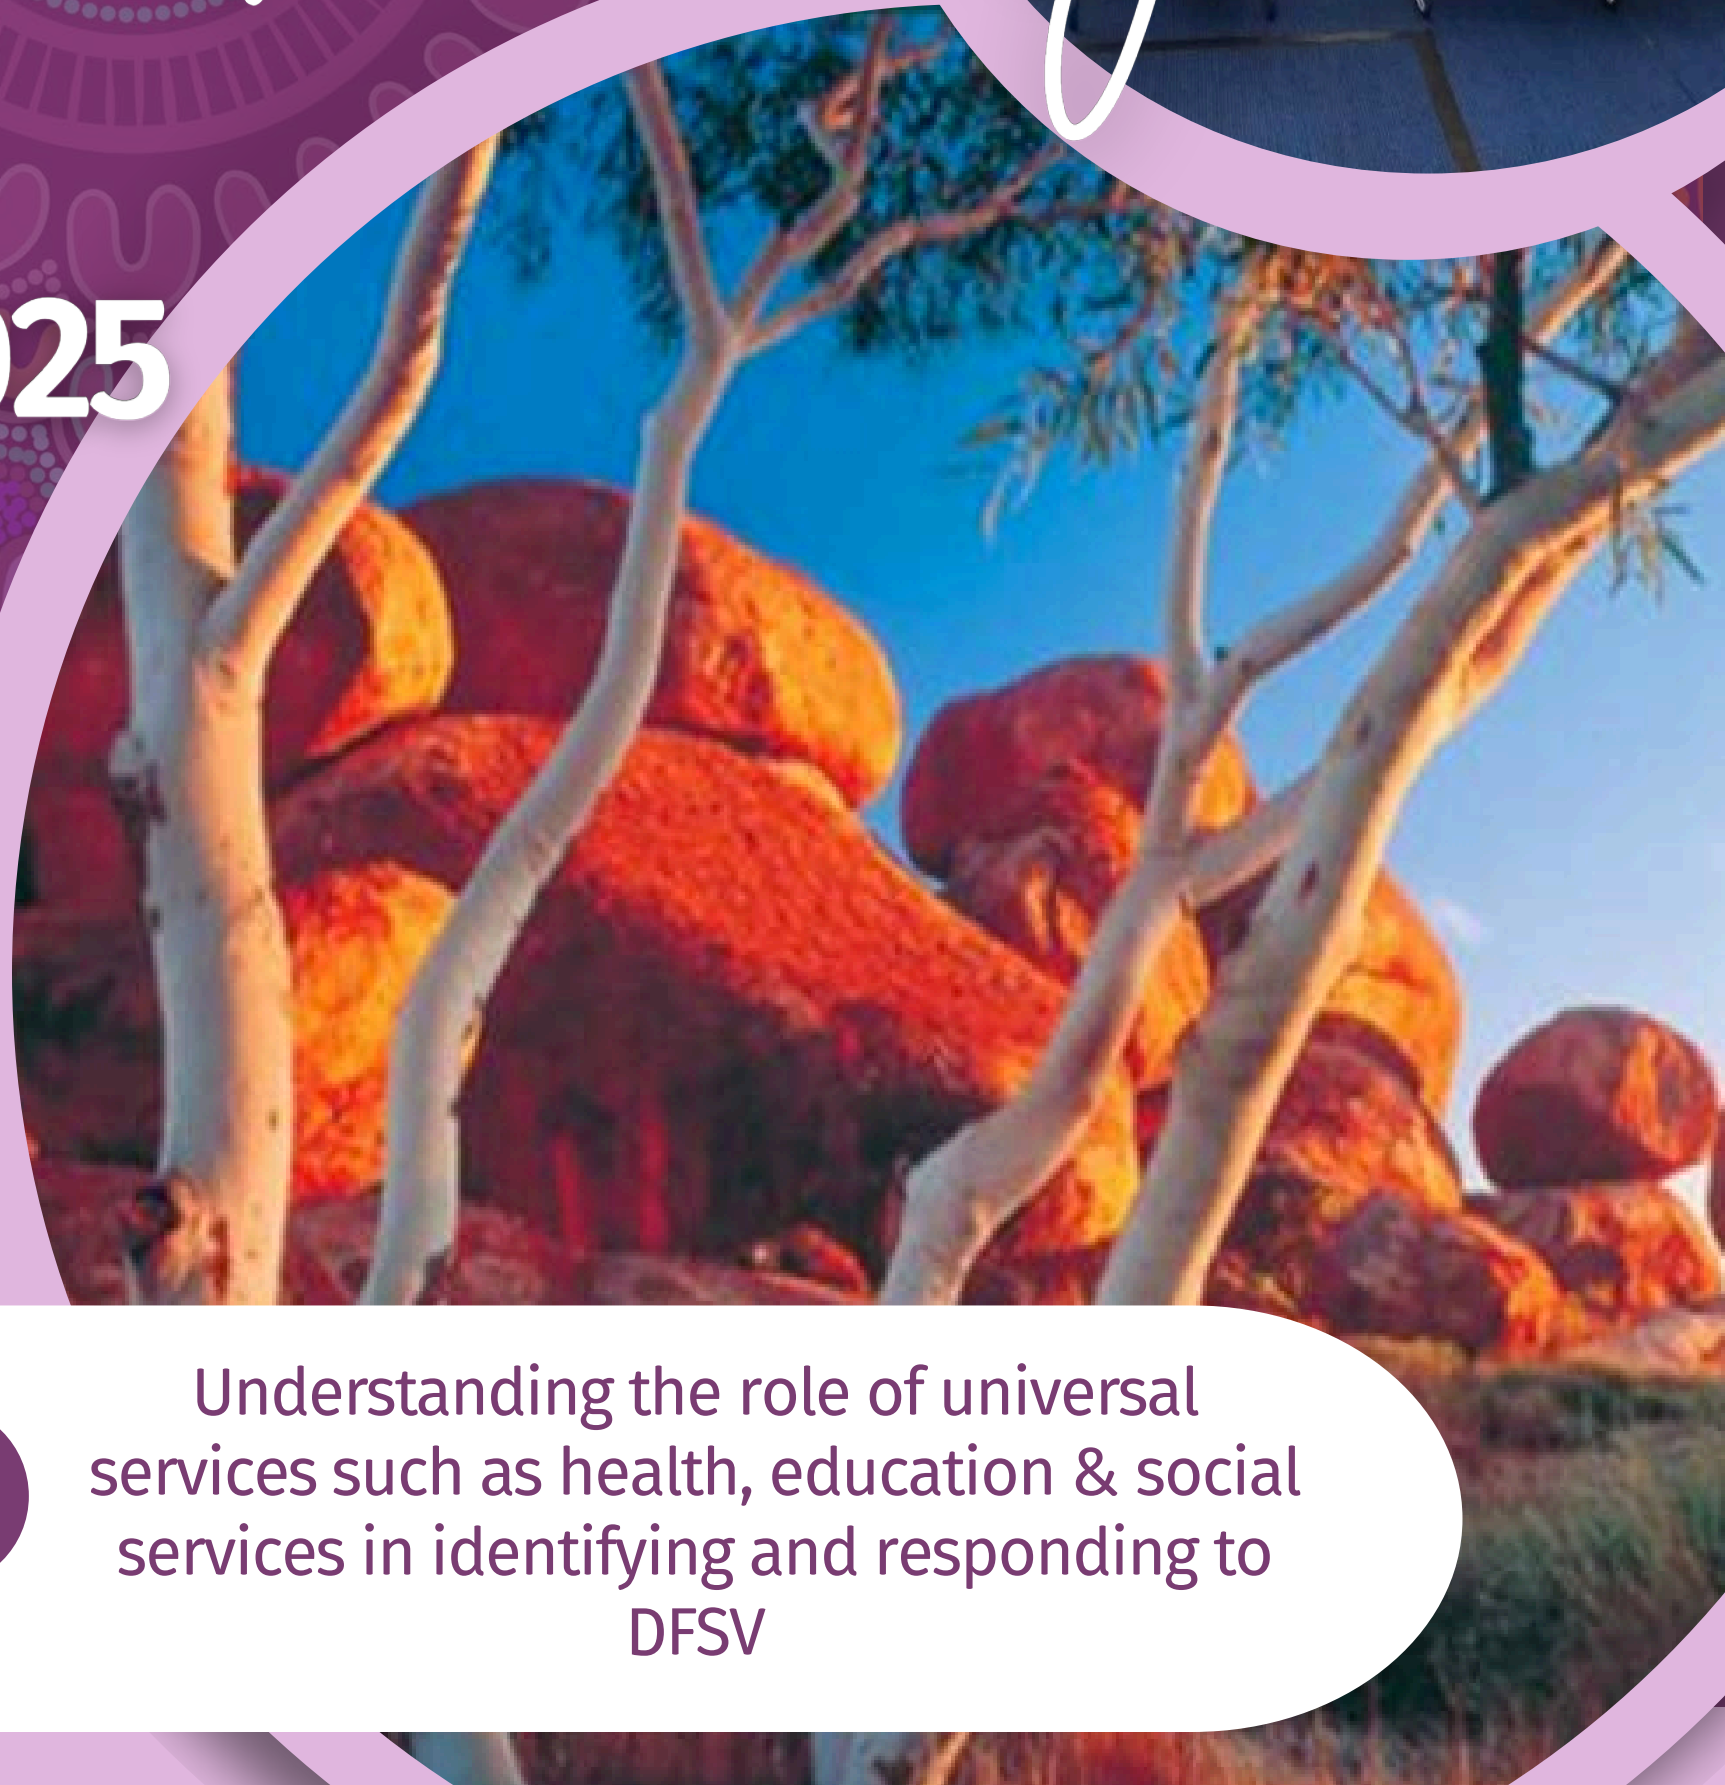

18TH SEPTEMBER 2025

$55 + Booking Fees via Eventbrite

inc. resources, morning tea, lunch & refreshments

This training opportunity is subsidised and group sizes are limited.

Register early to avoid disappointment

✓ Deepen understanding of the nature & dynamics of family violence in The Barkley region

✓ Understanding the role of universal services such as health, education & social services in identifying and responding to DFSV

✓ Learn how to deliver trauma-informed support tailored to client needs & circumstances

✓ Develop confidence in safety planning & accessing referral pathways

✓ Gain practical insights into legal responses, inc. mandatory reporting obligations

ONLINE REGISTRATION

cawls.org.au

The Central Australian Women's Legal Service would like to thank our event guest speakers from

