

Children thrive when we all understand our role in keeping them safe

FREE WORKSHOPS

FOR PEOPLE WORKING WITH CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE & FAMILIES

Perfect for early childhood educators, teachers, health workers, churches, sports clubs, youth & social workers, counsellors, volunteers, and businesses that engage with families.

DARWIN, PALMERSTON & ONLINE

Preventing Child Abuse & Neglect (including Mandatory Reporting)

"A real interactive, hands on, positive training session that had everyone very engaged and active."

Darwin – 21 April
Palmerston – 5 May
Online – March, April, May

Creating Child Safe Organisations

"I now have a much better understanding of how to provide safe environments for children."

Darwin – 20 March, 23 April
Online – March, April, May
Leader Briefing – Palm 7 May

Reframing Parenting to improve child wellbeing

"We need to change the way we communicate about parenting so parents don't feel judged."

Darwin – 23 April

7 Steps to Safety

"If you work with parents, children, carers, this 7 Steps to Safety kit is for you."

Darwin – 21 April

Safer Communities for Children

community approach to protective behaviours and wellbeing for young children

Darwin – 19 March
Palmerston – 6 May

Register now:

www.napcan.org.au/training

NAPCAN PREVENT CHILD ABUSE & NEGLECT